

Department of Education and Early Childhood Development

Conditions concerning the specialized training or education and courses required to obtain a permanent certificate through this policy

1. Specialized fields as specified by the Minister

Under subsection 6.2.1 of Policy 612, the following bachelor's degrees in areas of specialization specified by the Minister are accepted;

- Adult Education
- Anthropology
- Biology
- Canadian Studies
- Chemistry
- Computer Science
- Economy
- Engineering
- English
- English as a second language
- Environmental Sciences
- Family Studies
- French
- French as a second language
- Fine Arts
- General Sciences
- Geography
- Geology
- History
- Indigenous Languages
- Indigenous Studies
- Information Technology
- Journalism
- Kinesiology
- Law
- Literacy
- Mathematics
- Music
- Philosophy
- Physics
- Political Sciences
- Psychology
- Science and Technology Studies
- Social Sciences
- Social Studies
- Sociology
- Visual Arts

Department of Education and Early Childhood Development

2. Receiving the interim teacher's certificate through this policy

As described at subsection 6.4.1 of Policy 612, a series of obligatory courses must be completed before the interim teacher's certificate is issued.

These courses are:

- a) Classroom management;
- b) Methods in specified field; and
- c) School law